I hereby declare that the publication of my dissertation is approved by the doctoral committee (Promotionsausschuss). I also declare that the publishing version of my dissertation corresponds to the examination version in form and content. I also confirm that the mandatory printed copy and the digital version (OPARU) are identical. This point does not apply in the exceptional case of a publication only in print.

I hereby declare that Ulm University shall have the rights to store my dissertation and associated materials on digital storage systems, to publish them in public networks and to forward them to the German National Library for storage and public access.

If the dedication, acknowledgement, curriculum vitae and/or other personal data is included in the digital version, I hereby declare my approval to store and publish it/them, too.

I assure that I have not modified this declaration.
