Reconfiguring Europe: an Old Continent in a New Millennium

September 6th - September 21st 2014

Prague, Czech Republic
Organised by Charles University, Faculty of Social Sciences
Internationally known study programme
Successful participants awarded 12 ECTS credits

Objective
- to provide students with a broad understanding of the most significant recent political, economic and social issues in Europe
- to analyse the current challenges and risks for the future of European development

Method
- interdisciplinary approach
- multiple forms of learning (lectures, workshops, discussions, group work and students presentations)

Extras
- numerous cultural, sport and social activities

Price 930 EUR (approx. 1270 USD)
Includes
- tuition
- cultural and social events
- reading materials (online after enrolling)
- housing at the residence hall
- two meals per day (breakfast and lunch)

Details and Applications: summer-university.fsv.cuni.cz
Reconfiguring Europe: an Old Continent in a New Millennium

September 6th - September 21st 2014

Internationally known study programme
12 ECTS credits awarded to successful participants

- Interdisciplinary approach, multiple forms of learning (lectures, workshops, discussions, ...)
- Provides students with a broad understanding of the most significant current political, economic and social issues
  - Numerous cultural, sport and social activities