

After the Application Period

Complete application packages will be passed on to the members of the admissions committee for evaluation.

Results (admission/rejection) will be published by the admission office of Ulm University at the latest end of June.

In case you get admitted you will receive an e-mail from the admission office of Ulm University. It will comprise the admission letter (facsimile carrying the signature of the officer of the admissions office and official seal of Ulm University), an acceptance letter to be signed and returned by you and detailed information on how to proceed. The facsimile will be accepted as proof for admission when you apply for a visa at a German embassy or consulate in your home country. You will not receive a hard copy of the admission letter.

In case your application is rejected you will receive an official letter of rejection from the admission office of Ulm University by regular mail.

Please note ...

- We usually receive several hundreds of applications.
- We cannot speed up the reviewing process since all complete applications are evaluated carefully.
- Don't call to check on the status of your application.
- You got admitted to the program but are not able to come to Ulm?
Please note that admission is granted only for the year you applied for. In case you want to participate in the program one year later you have to apply again during the next application period: Carry out the online registration. You will receive a new application number. Complete the application form and remark that you have been admitted before (note your old registration number). Send updated transcripts of records and an updated Curriculum Vitae. All deadlines for registration, application and sending of documents are valid for your new application. We cannot guarantee that you will get admitted again since the admission rules may have changed.
- Your application was rejected and you want to apply again a year later?
You have to carry out the complete application procedure during the next application period: Online registration, filling in the application form, update and send all documents. We do not provide any documents from your previous application.
