“Mensch ärgere Dich nicht“: Games Germans play

Wednesday, March 3rd, 2010

7.30 pm, Villa Eberhardt

Probably all over the world people play games - like card games, board games or others. It's to be assumed that “Mensch ärgere Dich nicht” is a game which nearly all Germans know. That's why it is the title of this Jour fixe, to which we invite the PhD students of the International Graduate School in Molecular Medicine of Ulm University and the M4M mentors.

The mentors are asked to bring their favourite games with them to give impressions what they liked to play as children, what they like to play nowadays. So PhD students may get an impression of usual or even unusual games in Germany.

Join this Jour fixe and come to the Villa Eberhardt (Heidenheimer Straße 80, Ulm – close to bus stop “Steinhövelstraße”) on Wednesday, March 3rd, 2010 at 7.30 pm/19.30 Uhr. You are very welcome!

The “Jour fixe” takes place as thematic evening regularly in every month. It offers you the opportunity to get in contact with each other to exchange experiences, to get to know about Germany, its language and culture. And it can be the starting point for further common activities.
