2. Friday, May 21st 2010

Workshop evaluation and picture editing from 14.00 h to 17.00 h in the PC-Pool University West, room 47.2.413, Albert-Einstein-Allee 47, 89081 Ulm.

Starting on Sunday, May 16th 2010, at the railway station of Blaubeuren at 11.00 h

Take the train from Ulm main station, platform No:4, departure at 10.36 h to Blaubeuren, arrival there at 10.53 h.

(Blaubeuren can easily be reached by railway with students' DING-ticket without additional fees from Ulm main station).

We will go marching crossing the "Ried" to the famous „Blautopf“ (Europe's biggest spring and the source of the little river "Blau").

There are many beautiful picture motives during walking, further motives will arise at the monastery of Blaubeuren and the charming old town.

Expert in charge Frank Luwe will answer the participants' technical and processing questions regarding the pictures they want to shoot.

End of excursion will be at 17.00 h at the train station of Blaubeuren.

Please take care for solid footwear and clothing as well as for some food and drinks, and of course bring along your camera.

The pictures will be selected, processed, and a slideshow compiled for the M4M website, during the following workshop at the university's PC pool on Friday, May 21st, 2010

from 14.00 h to 17.00 h, in the University West, room No: 47.2.413, Albert-Einstein-Allee 47, 89081 Ulm.
