

Call for proposal 2019

Doctoral scholarships under the Postgraduate Scholarships Act of the Land of Baden-Wuerttemberg (LGFG)

The University of Ulm offers four doctoral scholarships under the Postgraduate Scholarships Act of the Land of Baden-Wuerttemberg (LGFG) to highly qualified junior staff members starting on the 1st of November 2019.

You may apply for a scholarship provided that:

- you have a university degree
- you started your PhD studies after the 1st of March 2019
- you are highly qualified
- you have a project with a significant contribution to research
- you are a PhD student of your faculty (we need written proof until the beginning of the scholarship)

Important:

Ulm University may not grant a scholarship to its own employees. Accepting the scholarship means you may not have a concurrent gainful employment at Ulm University.

Please use the application form on: www.uni-ulm.de/index.php?id=46952

The following documents also need to be submitted:

- a work schedule comprising a timeframe
- referee's statement by academic supervisor (1st referee)
- referee's statement by another professor (2nd referee)
- copies of university examination certificates (University may request copies to be certified)
- confirmation by the Faculty of acceptance as a doctoral candidate and my being academically supervised by a university lecturer
- a curriculum vitae providing information on, in particular, previous studies, special achievements and experiences

Detailed application and evaluation criteria are stated in the Satzung der Universität Ulm zur Durchführung des Landesgraduiertenförderungsgesetzes (LGFG) und zur Vergabe weiterer Promotionsstipendien.

The initial duration of the scholarship is one year. It can be prolonged twice for a period of one more year each. So the overall funding period is up to three years.

Deadline is Monday, 23th September 2019

Please send your application in paper to: Universität Ulm, Dezernat I, Abt. I-2, Helmholtzstraße 16, D-89081 Ulm and also as a pdf-document (all attachments assembled in a single pdf-document, please) to: stipendium@uni-ulm.de Please use the keyword: "LGFG-Einzelstipendium 2019"

Information is available via E-mail stipendium@uni-ulm.de only.

The final decision takes place at calendar week 42.

Heidi Krolopp, Dezernat I Recht und Organisation