WORKSHOP

CULTURAL DIVERSITY IN THE CLASSROOM

21. November 2026

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Pupils and teachers are bringing increasingly diverse migration experiences, social and religious orientations into the classroom, which can easily lead to misunderstandings, irritation and exclusion. At the same time, these differences can also be seen and strengthened as competences and valuable resources in everyday school life. It is not only teachers who face exciting challenges when it comes to creating an appreciative, constructive and fair approach to this diversity in the classroom and beyond. This interactive workshop aims to support you in this endeavour. Participants are invited to reflect on cultural and other differences, examine their own value orientations and learn about approaches to dealing with racism.

- 10:00 A.M - 4:30 P.M.
- AT ULM UNIVERSITY
- COST: 0€
- SPEAKER: TANJA BÖTTCHER, DIPL. PSYCH., TRAINER FOR INTERCULTURAL COMPETENCE AND DIVERSITY MANAGEMENT
