Cairo University

Faculty of Science Cairo University organizes a seminar, entitled “Green Chemistry and Greening the Minds of Our Sons and Daughters”, in the framework of cultural activity, on April 25, 2017, at the Faculty of Science. The seminar is sponsored by Faculty of Science Dean Al-Sayed Fahim and supervised by the Faculty of Science Vice-Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development Tarek Al-Arabi. Professor of Faculty of Science and the Director of Science Heritage Center Hamed Eid delivers a lecture in the seminar. A group of Faculty of Science staff members and some figures who are interested in chemistry and green philosophy participate in the seminar. The seminar tackles some topics most prominent of which are chemistry, green philosophy and its principles and how humans damaged the earth. It is one of the most important scientific seminars that talk about how to change our current life into a green one to become a life style. The seminar also develops a roadmap for forty ways that enable us to enjoy green life.

Reshetnev Siberian State University of Science and Technology

According to the Order of the Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation, SibSAU was renamed into Reshetnev Siberian State University of Science and Technology (SibSU). This event marked the completion of the first stage of the reorganization of two top technical universities of the Krasnoyarsk Region, as a result of which Siberian State Technological University merged with Siberian State Aerospace University. As of now, all students and staff members will be a part of Reshetnev Siberian State University of Science and Technology, on the basis of which a high-profile educational institution, the flagship university of the Krasnoyarsk Territory, is being created. The total number of students currently studying at SibSU amounts to over 20 thousand people. 1255 research and teaching staff members, including 3 Academicians and 3 Corresponding Members of the Russian Academy of Sciences, 2 Academicians and 1 Corresponding Member of the Russian Academy of Education, 154 Doctors of Sciences and 705 Candidates of Sciences, are employed by the university. Students are being taught in the total number of 14 institutes and 79 departments.

Cairo University Center for Elderly Care organizes the second sport, cultural and artistic festival for elderly people in cooperation with Faculty of Physical Education, at Helwan University. The festival was held on May 4, 2017, at Cairo University playgrounds, under the theme of “Sport is Life Pulse of Good Old Days Youth”. The festival is sponsored by Cairo University President Gaber Nassar and supervised by Cairo University Vice-Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development Saeed Daw. It is attended by a group of artists, athletes and the center members. This festival is included within the integrated and pioneering role played by Cairo University as well as its academic role in community service.

A delegation from the Krasnoyarsk Region took part in the strategic session held by the Ministry of Economic Development of the Russian Federation dedicated to generation of a plan of actions on development of innovative clusters, worldclass leaders in terms of investment attractiveness. The team from the Krasnoyarsk Region included representatives of SibSAU, the flagship university of the region. During the session, participants generated a roadmap of innovative cluster development, the winner of the priority project of the Ministry of Economic Development of the RF entitled “Development of innovative clusters, world class leaders in terms of investment attractiveness” for the period till 2020.
Ulm University

The faculty Economic sciences at UUlm achieved good results in the CHE-Universityranking. In the categories “support at the beginning” and “graduation in an appropriate time” UUlm get outstanding performance. The faculty economics stands out in the category “internationality”.

The CHE-Universityranking comprises over 300 universities. It includes research, science, studies and also students’ opinions.

The German Research Foundation supports the establishment of the collaborative research centre (CRC) “use of human peptidome for the development of new antimicrobial and anti-cancer therapeutics” with 12,1 Mio € for 4 years. The interdisciplinary group of scientists around Prof. Frank Kirchhoff (Head of the Institute Molecular Virology and speaker of the CRC) intend to research peptides to combat infectious diseases as well as cancer with few side effects and to optimize these with new technologies for therapeutic use in the human body.

Moscow State University

A cryo-storage of meristems of valuable agricultural species and cell cultures for biotechnological applications was opened in the Center for Biotechnology Excellence of the Lomonosov Moscow State University in the framework of the Noah’s Ark project. Cryobank designed for 50,000 samples, which are stored in liquid nitrogen vapor at a temperature of -180 ° C. Among the samples will be.

The meeting of the rector of Moscow State University with a delegation of Peking University, was held on May 17, 2017. The extension of the Agreement on the functioning of the Confucius Institute at Moscow University was signed. The Institute implements programs for teaching the Chinese language and Chinese culture in Russia, organization of academic exchanges, scientific seminars and conferences, joint Russian-Chinese cultural events.

Contact:

Veronika Ansorge
International Office – Strategic Partnerships – U5 veronika.ansorge@uni-ulm.de