

I. Information on data protection pursuant to Article 13 of the GDPR

in connection with the photo competition organised by the International Affairs Department at Ulm University

The following information explains what personal data the Ulm University processes about you in connection with the International Affairs Department's photo competition. You will also find information on how and for what purposes your data is used, and what rights you have regarding the processing of your personal data.

1. Data controller

In accordance with Article 4(7) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the data controller is the University of Ulm

Helmholtzstr. 16

89081 Ulm

Telephone +49 (0)731/50-10

Fax +49 (0)731/50-22038

Ulm University is a body governed by public law, represented by the President (praesident@uni-ulm.de) or the Chancellor (kanzler@uni-ulm.de).

If you have any questions regarding data protection, please contact dsb@uni-ulm.de or datenschutz@uni-ulm.de, or send a letter marked 'Data Protection Officer' to the address given above.

External Data Protection Officer:

DDSK GmbH

Irina Weiß

Tel.: +49 (0)7542/949 21-09

Email: dsb@uni-ulm.de

2. Scope of data processing

2.1. Description

Your personal data will be processed for the purpose of organising and running the photo competition, in particular for managing participation, selecting the winners and notifying them.

Only students of Ulm University who are at least 18 years old at the time of submission are eligible to take part. Photos must be submitted via the following website: <https://www.uni-ulm.de/en/io/international-office/photo-competition/>.

Submitted photos may be published on Ulm University's website, together with your name as the author of the photo, as part of the University's general public relations work and for marketing purposes.

These photos will not be uploaded directly to the official social media platforms of Ulm University and the International Office (Instagram, Facebook, LinkedIn). However, posts on these social media channels may include a link to the University's website, where the photos are published alongside the name of the photographer.

When using social media platforms, additional data processing takes place by the respective platform operators, over which the Ulm University has no control. The privacy policies of the social media platforms used by Ulm University can be accessed via the links provided in the University of Ulm's privacy policy.

The submitted photographs may be technically edited for editorial purposes. This includes, in particular:

- Adjustment of size, resolution and file format,
- Cropping of the image,
- Technical optimisation (e.g. brightness, contrast).

No alterations or modifications that distort the content of the submitted photographs will be made. The University will not use your personal data for any purposes other than those specified here.

2.2. Legal basis for data processing

The legal basis for the processing of personal data and the use of the photographs is your consent in accordance with Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR.

2.3. Categories of Personal Data and Purpose of Data Processing

Category	Purpose of Data Processing
First name and surname, email address	- Contacting you (e.g. queries, notification of prizes)

	- Organisation and follow-up of the photo competition, - Matching photos to their respective entrants, - Awarding of prizes, - Exhibition, publication and editorial use of the photos
Submitted photo, where applicable image title and/or image description, provided that personal data is provided	- Selection of photos, - Exhibition, publication and editorial use of the photos
Proof of consent	To fulfil our accountability obligation under the GDPR

3. Duration of storage

Your personal data will be deleted immediately once it is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was processed. The personal data of participants whose submitted photographs were not selected will be deleted immediately upon completion of the photography competition. The personal data of winners will be deleted no later than one year after the first exhibition or publication. Where we have been granted rights of use, we will store the associated information for as long as we are required to provide evidence of those rights of use.

Declarations of consent to data processing will be stored for a period of 15 years from the date of their collection.

4. Recipients of your data

Within Ulm University, only those departments that require your personal data to fulfil the purposes set out above (see section 2.3 above) will have access to it.

For the publication of your name as the author of the photograph in question on the Ulm University's websites and its visibility on the University's social media channels, see section 2.1 above.

5. Your rights as a data subject

To protect your personal data, you have the following rights:

- to obtain information about the personal data concerning you (Art. 15 GDPR),
- to have inaccurate data rectified (Art. 16 GDPR),
- to request the erasure or restriction of the processing of your personal data under certain conditions (Articles 17 and 18 of the GDPR),
- to object to the processing of your data (Article 21 of the GDPR),
- to have your data transferred to other recipients of your choice (Article 20 of the GDPR). This requires separate consent.
- If you have consented to the processing by means of a corresponding declaration, you may withdraw your consent at any time with effect for the future (see the 'Withdrawal of Consent' section below).

If you wish to request the rectification, restriction, erasure or access to the personal data stored about you, or if you have any questions regarding the collection, processing or use of your personal data, or if you wish to withdraw any consent you have given, please contact us at the following email address: website.io@uni-ulm.de

You also have the right to contact the relevant data protection supervisory authority if you believe that the processing of your personal data is not being carried out lawfully. The supervisory authority responsible for us is the State Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information in Baden-Württemberg (<https://www.baden-wuerttemberg.datenschutz.de/online-beschwerde/>).

II. Consent to the processing of your personal data pursuant to Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR

I consent to my personal data being processed in the context of the photography competition for the purposes of organising and running the competition, in particular for managing entries, selecting the winners and notifying them.

Furthermore, I agree that my photograph may be published on the website of the International Affairs Department or displayed on the premises of Ulm University, accompanied by my name, and that it may be used and further processed for the purposes of public relations and marketing by Ulm University.

Information on the right to withdraw consent:

This consent to the processing of personal data within the meaning of Article 6(1)(a) in conjunction with Article 7 of the GDPR may be withdrawn in writing at any time without giving reasons. Unless consent is withdrawn, it remains valid indefinitely. The lawfulness of any data processing carried out prior to the withdrawal remains unaffected by the withdrawal. Consent is voluntary. No disadvantages will arise from refusing to give consent or from withdrawing it.

Please address any withdrawal to: website.io@uni-ulm.de

If any people are recognisable in the photograph submitted, I confirm that I have obtained the necessary consent from them for the photograph to be taken and used for the purposes described here.