4. Public Transport & Tickets (DING Network)

Public transportation in Ulm and Neu-Ulm operates under the DING (Donau-Iller-Nahverkehrsverbund) network. Both cities are within the single tariff zone 10/20.

Where and How to Buy Tickets

- Mobile Apps (Recommended): Use the DING App or SWU App for instant, cashless ticket purchases on your smartphone.
- Ticket Machines: Available at tram stops and inside the trams. These machines generally accept coins, banknotes, and debit/credit cards.
- Bus Drivers: Tickets can also be purchased with cash directly from bus drivers (this does not apply to trams).

Common Ticket Types

- Einzelfahrschein (Single Ticket): Valid for one journey in a single direction. Transfers are allowed, but return or round trips are prohibited.
- Tageskarte (Day Ticket): The most cost-effective option if you plan to make two or more trips in one day. Valid until 04:00 AM the following day.
