

Partner University Application Form

ULMA Economic Workshop (ULMA-EW) - Global Teaching Labs 2026

Project Context

The ULMA Economic Workshop is an international, research-oriented teaching format for Master's students. Selected partner universities host an in-person workshop led by Ulm lecturers covering econometrics, causal inference, R, and the use of AI agents for empirical research. Afterwards, international and Ulm students work in mixed teams on state-of-the-art replication studies using AI agents for literature review, data preparation, coding, and empirical analysis. The in-person workshop lasts three days and is planned for the period from mid-September to October 2026.
