

ACEA is seeking an:

Intern

to support the Environmental Policy Director on regulatory developments relevant to the automobile industry.

Job description

- Monitoring policy and regulatory developments impacting on the automobile industry; especially environmental related topics, like Circular Economy, REACH Batterie Regulation.
- Drafting of advocacy/ position papers; updating monitoring/ tracking tools.
- Drafting briefings, reports and meeting minutes.
- Participating in and contributing to other activities as may be assigned by the Environmental Policy Director.

Profile

- Student in law, political science, economics or environmental engineering
- Good knowledge of the EU decision making process or in the automotive sector is an advantage.
- Excellent English, oral and written, is a must, good knowledge of other languages an asset.
- Strong presentation and communication skills.
- Fast learner, autonomous, confident, positive; good diplomatic and coordination skills.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office applications such as Word, PowerPoint, Excel, and similar software;

What we offer

ACEA offers a stimulating, international and professional working environment. You will have the opportunity to support the work of our member companies, by working both independently as well as part of a dynamic team.

European Automobile
Manufacturers Association

If you are interested, please send your cover letter and CV to the attention of Mrs Amélie Sophie Salau by email to as@acea.be. Please ensure you put "Internship application: ACEA Environmental Policy" in the email subject line. Please note that only selected candidates will be contacted.

Type of contract

Internship 6 month

Start date

February 1st