3G in the workplace

Due to the current pandemic situation, we are obliged to implement the measures imposed on us before starting work. Therefore, we would like to inform you about the collection and processing of your personal data in this context.

Type of data processed
Relevant personal data categories are:
- Surname, first name and, if applicable, date of birth (only if the name is the same in a facility/institute).
- 3G status (vaccinated/genetically tested)
- Expiration date

Purposes and legal basis for processing your personal data
We process personal data in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG) and other applicable data protection regulations (details below). We process the data pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. c) DSGVO in conjunction with Section 28b IfSG and Art. 9 (2) lit. i) DSGVO in conjunction with Section 28b IfSG (Infection Protection Act) for the purpose of carrying out and documenting the legally required inspections.

Please note: Information and documents voluntarily provided by you for the determination of your immunization status are neither desired nor required on our part.

Recipients of the data
The data remain internal and are only transmitted to the health authorities upon request.

For the purposes of infection control, the currently applicable legal provisions provide for obligations on our part to provide information to the competent health authorities. If your personal data is requested by the responsible health authority, the respective district administrator or mayor is responsible for the further processing of your personal data with the health authorities.

Storage period
We are obliged to store the data collected and stored within the above-mentioned framework for 6 months.

Your rights
You have the right to free information about your stored personal data at any time, as well as a right to correction, data portability and deletion of this data in accordance with legal requirements. If the deletion is contrary to legal storage obligations, we will have them blocked. In addition, you are entitled pursuant to Art. 21 DSGVO to object to the processing of your data under certain conditions or to demand that we restrict the processing. Furthermore, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority.

If the data processing is based on your consent, you can revoke this at any time for the future.
