FAMILY SERVICE

Family Service at Ulm University

Your Family Service as central contact body supports you in personal family-related matter, e.g.:

- How can I reconcile studies, career and family?
- What childcare options are available?
- Who can help if I wish to care for family members?
- What options do I have when a team member in my third-party funded project is unable to work, either entirely or partially, due to family issues?

Who can use this service?

Applicants, dual career couples, employees, scientists, students
