

Statutes on the required language skills for studying at Ulm University of 11 July 2023

On the basis of § 60 (2) no. 2, § 63 (2) of the Law on Higher Education Institutions in Baden-Württemberg (Landeshochschulgesetz - LHG) in the version of 1 January 2005, repeatedly and most recently amended by Article 8 of the Law of 7 February 2023 (Law Gazette 2022 p. 26, 43), the Senate of Ulm University passed the following Statutes on 21 June 2023.

§ 1 Scope of application

The Statutes regulate the necessary language entrance requirements for taking up studies in the bachelor's and master's degree programmes at Ulm University and their proof.

§ 2 Proof for degree programmes taught in German

- (1) The regulation of language certificates for German-taught degree programmes is based on the framework regulation on German language examinations for studies at German universities (Rahmenordnung über Deutsche Sprachprüfungen für das Studium an deutschen Hochschulen - RO-DT) (resolution of the German Rectors' Conference (HRK) of 8 June 2004 and the Standing Conference of the Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs (KMK) of 25 June 2004) in the applicable versions.
- (2) Applicants who are seeking a degree and require German language skills for the applied-for degree programme and who have not acquired their study qualification at a German-speaking institution with German as the language of instruction shall prove these skills through the following language certificates:
  - school leaving certificate corresponding to a German higher education entrance qualification in terms of language requirements,
  - completed degree programme with at least 50% German as the language of instruction,
  - Deutsches Sprachdiplom of the Standing Conference of the Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs (KMK) – Level 2 (DSD II),
  - Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang (DSH) with the overall result of DSH-2 or higher based on examination regulations registered by the German Rectors' Conference (HRK),
  - Test Deutsch als Fremdsprache (TestDaF) with the result TestDaF level 4 or higher in all four examination parts (paper-based or digital),

- passed examination part German of the higher education entrance assessment examination (Feststellungsprüfung) at a Studienkolleg,
  - passed examination telc Deutsch C1 Hochschule,
  - Goethe-Zertifikat C2: Großes Deutsches Sprachdiplom (GDS),
  - Österreichisches Sprachdiplom C2 (ÖDS C2),
  - German as Language A in the IB diploma,
  - Deutsche Sprachprüfung II of the Sprachen- und Dolmetscher-Institut München, or
  - proof of German language skills that have been recognised by bilateral agreements or other agreements reached by the Standing Conference of the Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs and the German Rectors' Conference as sufficient proof of language proficiency for admission to higher education in accordance with the Annex to the Resolution of the Standing Conference of the Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs of 2 June 1995 in the applicable version for the "Zugang von ausländischen Studienbewerberinnen und Studienbewerbern mit ausländischem Bildungsnachweis zum Studium an deutschen Hochschulen: Nachweis der deutschen Sprachkenntnisse".
- (3) In deviation from the regulations of paragraph 2, a lower level of German language skills may be determined on the basis of the linguistic requirements of the subject content of the degree programmes. Applicants demonstrate such skills corresponding to the language level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR), by means of the following language certificates:
- completed studies in higher education with German language components,
  - Goethe-Zertifikat B2,
  - passed examination telc Deutsch B2 certificate,
  - Österreichisches Sprachdiplom C2 (ÖDS) B2 certificate,
  - Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang (DSH) with the overall result of DSH-1 based on examination regulations registered by the German Rectors' Conference (HRK),
  - Test Deutsch als Fremdsprache (TestDaF) with the result TestDaF level 3 or higher in all four examination parts (paper-based or digital).
- (4) Applicants who have completed their studies in higher education and are enrolling for doctoral/PhD studies are exempt from providing proof of linguistic study ability.
- (5) On request, the proof of linguistic study ability may be waived in justified individual cases, in particular for those who
1. have spent significant periods of their education at German-speaking schools,
  2. have a proven command of German as their mother tongue or can prove that they have lived in the German-speaking area for many years,
  3. can prove that they have completed a degree in German studies, or

4. can prove that they have completed at least two years of vocational training in Germany.

The head of the Center for Languages and Philology decides on these exemptions upon request by the applicant.

§ 3 Proof for degree programmes taught in English

(1) Applicants seeking a degree who require English language proficiency for the degree programme and who have not acquired their degree qualification in a degree programme with English as the sole language of instruction shall submit proof of sufficient English language skills at level C 1 of the CEFR. This proof of language proficiency is fulfilled by:

- 7.0 points or more in the International English Language Testing System (IELTS, "IELTS Academic" (IELTS online) or "IELTS Indicator"); if both IELTS score and CEFR level are indicated, the higher language level is recognised,
- Certificate in C 1 Advanced English or Certificate C 2 Proficiency in English in the Cambridge exam,
- 490 (listening), 455 (reading), 180 (speaking) and 180 (writing) points or more in the Test of English for International Communication (TOEIC),

- level III or level IV of UNIcert®,
- PTE Academic, with a score of 76 or higher, or
- a higher education entrance qualification with documented language skills at CEFR C 1 level or higher; language skills that only partially correspond to CEFR C 1 level or for which a lower language proficiency level is identified are not recognised.

(2) In deviation from the regulations of paragraph 1, a lower level of English language skills may be determined on the basis of the linguistic requirements of the subject content of the degree programmes. Applicants demonstrate these skills, which correspond to the CEFR B 2 level, by means of the following language certificates:

- 5.5 points or more in the International English Language Testing System (IELTS, "IELTS Academic" (IELTS online) or "IELTS Indicator"); if both IELTS score and CEFR level are indicated, the higher language level is recognised,
- First Certificate in English (FCE), Certificate in English Language Skills (CELS) Vantage or Business English Certificate (BEC) Vantage Cambridge exam English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) (Cambridge University),
- 400 (listening), 385 (reading), 160 (speaking) and 150 (writing) points or more in the Test of English for International Communication (TOEIC),
- 72 points or more in the Test of English as a Foreign Language internet-based (TOEFL iBT or "TOEFL iBT home edition"),
- level II of UNIcert®,
- PTE Academic, with a score of 59 or higher,

- a higher education entrance qualification with documented language skills at CEFR B 2 level or higher; language skills that only partially correspond to CEFR B 2 level or for which a lower language proficiency level is identified are not recognised,
  - a higher education entrance qualification showing that the applicant has achieved at least 5 points in each of the last 2 years of language acquisition.
- (3) On request, the proof of linguistic study ability may be waived in justified individual cases, in particular for those who
1. have spent significant periods of their education at English-speaking schools,
  2. have a proven command of English as their mother tongue or can prove that they have lived in the English-speaking area for many years,
  3. can prove that they have completed a degree in English studies.

The head of the Center for Languages and Philology decides on these exemptions upon request by the applicant.

§ 4 Foreign temporary students

The required language skills of foreign applicants who study at Ulm University only during a certain part of their studies within the framework of an agreement with a foreign partner university are determined by the requirements of the respective exchange programme or the respective exchange agreement. The same applies to temporary students in scholarship programmes. In all other respects, §§ 2 and 3 shall apply accordingly.

§ 5 Students on exchange programmes, double degree and joint degree programmes

Regulations on language requirements and their proof in agreements with partner higher education institutions within the framework of exchange, double degree and joint degree programmes remain unaffected. These take precedence over the provisions of these Statutes.

§ 6 Time of proof

- (1) In admission-restricted German-taught degree programmes, proof of linguistic study ability must be provided by the application deadline of the respective degree programme. In German-taught undergraduate degree programmes with unrestricted admission, proof of linguistic study ability must be submitted by the end of the enrolment period at the latest. In these cases, admission is only granted upon proof of language skills at CEFR level B 2 by the application deadline of the respective degree programme. In German-taught master's degree programmes with unrestricted admission, the required language proficiency must be proven at the time of enrolment at the latest.
- (2) In admission-restricted English-taught degree programmes, proof of linguistic study ability must be provided by the application deadline of the respective degree programme. In English-taught degree programmes with unrestricted admission, proof of linguistic study ability must be submitted by the end of the enrolment period at the latest.

§ 7 Effective date

These Statutes come into effect on the day after their publication in the Official Bulletin (Amtliche Bekanntmachungen) of Ulm University. They first apply to the allocation procedure for the winter semester 2023/24. At the same time, the Statutes on the required language proficiency for studying at Ulm University of 5 April 2022, published in the Official Bulletin of Ulm University No. 7 of 5 April 2022, pages 90 - 95) shall cease to be effective.
